MEGAN ALEXANDER

MEGAN ALEXANDER can be seen nightly as a correspondent on the #1 syndicated national newsmagazine television show "Inside Edition". She is also a Special Correspondent for CBS Television and "Thursday Night Football on CBS", covering NFL games and related stories for all CBS affiliates around the world. She has covered the last five Super Bowls, the Democratic National Convention, major awards shows and more. She serves as a guest commentator on shows like the Wendy Williams show, Showbiz Tonight, and Fox News. She is an Executive Producer and has a part in the upcoming feature film "HeartBeats". Megan sits on the Board of Governors of the Hugh O'Brian Youth Leadership. She graduated from Westmont College with a Political Science degree. She splits her time between New York City and Nashville, TN. Megan and her husband are the proud parents of 2 boys. Her first book "Faith in the Spotlight - thriving in your career while staying true to your beliefs" comes out Oct 4th!

LAMARR WOMBLE

LAMARR WOMBLE is the founder of Passion for Leadership. He was first inspired to become a motivational speaker after he attended a National Conference on Student Leadership (NCSL) in Orlando, Florida in 2005. He always had a knack for leadership, passion for people and was heavily involved in leadership positions during high school and college. From having these experiences, Lamarr discovered his interest in business and public speaking. After attending the National Conference on Student Leadership he was very motivated to pursue speaking to youth with the goal of giving them perspective from his point of view.

He launched Passion for Leadership in 2008 and since then has spoken to over 50,000 students and professionals about how they can find their passion! Lamarr doesn't just talk the talk, he walks the walk as a Dream Director in a New York City high school through the education startup, The Future Project. As a Dream Director he is able to implement on a day to day basis all of the motivational strategies he presents in his keynotes/workshops.

ANDREW "KOJI" SHIRAKA

Over the last seven years, ANDREW "KOJI" SHIRAKA has released an astounding collection of music including several EPs, splits with Into It. Over It. and La Dispute, and his debut 2013 full-length, Crooked in My Mind. He's also shared the stage along-side acts like Code Orange Kids, Title Fight, Balance and Composure, Kevin Devine, Never Shout Never, The Wonder Years and Geoff Rickly (Thursday) to name a few, amassing a legion of diehard fans along the way with his passionate and honest lyrics. Koji also runs an artist collective called Colormake and contributes his time and talent to helping various non-profit organizations like the Coalition of Immokalee Workers, Tree House Books, Charity: Water and Doctors Without Borders. He most recently released an EP on No Sleep Records called Fury and collaborated with the Giving Keys on the "Peacemaker" Key for the 2015 Warped Tour. (Photo credit - Dani Fresh, 2015.)

HOUSTON KRAFT

Houston Kraft is a professional speaker, leadership consultant, and kindness advocate who speaks to middle schools, high schools, colleges, and businesses across the country. He has spoken to nearly a half a million people nationwide at nearly 400 events and counting. He believes that real change comes through more than just motivation, so he has created tools like CharacterStrong and conversations like the Choose Love Movement to make sure that his work isn't just about good feelings or a positive message - it's about making real, practical, sustainable change.

REMY RUDD

REMY RUDD second-year finance student at the University of Florida with interests in real estate, investment strategies, and design. She enjoys playing tennis with her twin sister, traveling, listening to her Discover Weekly on Spotify, watching anything HGTV, and drinking too much coffee. After college, she hopes to work in New York or Chicago as she love the fast-paced life a big city offers.

2016 SPEAKERS

DIANE LATIKER

The mother of eight children, "MS. DIANE" has the children refer to her, is a 28 year resident of the Roseland community on the far south side of Chicago. She founded the award winning and internationally recognized organization Kids Off The Block, Inc. (KOB) in her home in July of 2003. Ms. Latiker was given this vision through her mother Evangelist Ruth Jackson. Ms. Jackson, saw that the youth in the neighborhood liked and respected her daughter. Looking at the children that were always at her home, Ms. Diane saw health professionals, doctors, lawyers, professional musicians, professional sports figures, politicians, and actresses, and the list goes on. Ms. Diane believed that she could make a difference in the community, and in the many youth that she came in contact with daily. She became encouraged and opened up her home to get these young people off the streets and involved in programs that would benefit them for the rest of their lives. The organization celebrated 12 years of service to children/youth, teens and young adults in the city of Chicago, IL. KOB started out with ten neighborhood kids, and now has impacted thousands of lives through love, compassion, nurturing and respect.

RYAN HALVORSEN

RYAN HALVORSEN is so excited to be back at WLC for the first time since his ambassador year. Ryan recently finished the Coro Fellowship in Public Affairs and accepted a job offer with Accenture. He graduated from Washington University in St. Louis, where he studied political science and international relations. In his free time, Ryan loves to recreate those delicious BuzzFeed recipes.

CHRIS FELTNER

CHRIS FELTNER is a 2014 PA-East and WLC alum, and a Team Alumni member for WLC 2016. He is a National Merit Scholar, and an incoming freshman at the University of Central Florida Burnett Honors College, where he will study Computer Engineering. His other interests include music and film.
